Steel relishing the opportunity to return to home territory

August 5, 2020

The Ascot Park Hotel Southern Steel are excited about the chance to play in front of home fans during the next two rounds of the ANZ Premiership.

After seven weeks on the road due to the centralised COVID-19 season restart, the Steel are set to host back-to-back matches in Invercargill this Friday and Saturday before heading to Dunedin for their final match of round robin on Sunday 16 August.

Match Notes

- The Pulse are coming off a 42-44 loss to the Mystics in Round 8, their first loss off the 2020 season.
- The Pulse have never beaten the Steel in five previous ANZ Premiership meetings in Invercargill. The Steel and Pulse have met 11 times in Invercargill across the ANZ Championship and Premiership and the Steel has won nine of 11.
- Katrina Rore will play her 200th combined National League match against the Steel in Invercargill.
- Yvette McCausland-Durie will coach the Central Pulse for the 100th time against the Steel in Round 9. McCausland-Durie coached the Pulse in the ANZ Championship between 2009 and 2011 before returning in 2017 at the start of the ANZ Premiership.

Join Steel players at our Invercargill games and help us raise funds for
SOUTHLAND CHARITY HOSPITAL

Purchase a seat in the SIT Stand to sit alongside Southern Steel players Jennifer O'Connell, Georgia Heffernan, and training partner Della-May Vining and support a great cause with $1 from every ticket going towards the Southland Charity Hospital.

Purchase your tickets at www.ticketek.co.nz or ILT Stadium Southland.

We'll also be rattling the Collection tin on Saturday at our 5pm Match against the Pulse in order to raise funds for our much needed Southland Charity Hospital.

If you are attending the game, please watch for our collectors and support this worthy and very special cause.
