ROUND 7 • STEEL VS PULSE

Only two points separate these teams on the ANZ Premiership ladder with the Pulse currently holding onto third place. The Pulse were commanding winners when they met in Round 4 but are up against a Steel unit growing in confidence.

Crunch time for determined Steel

Remarkable things happen when the odds appear stacked against you.

Ascot Park Hotel Southern Steel head coach Wendy Frew experienced exactly that plenty of times during a stellar playing career which spanned 16 years in netball's top echelon.

Now, she's at the helm preparing the Steel to take control of its own fate when it comes to booking a spot in next month's ANZ Premiership finals series.

A win over the Te Wānanga o Raukawa Pulse on Monday night is an integral part of the equation.

"It is a season-defining game for us, there's no denying that," Frew said.
