

Coach hopes Southern Steel have learnt lessons

by NATHAN BURDON - reproduced courtesy of the Southland Times

A week is a long time in sport, so the cliché goes. So, how about a fortnight?

Two weeks ago, Southern Steel were the talk of the netball community after a 65-58 win over defending champions the Waikato-Bay of Plenty Magic, a franchise record-equalling fourth consecutive victory for the Ascot Park Hotel-sponsored side.

Mum's the Word

Who better to tell us about 'Standing behind the Steel' than the players very own mothers!

Each week a player's mum will share their exclusive insight and memories of our favourite Steel netballers. (Should the players be worried?)

This week it's Phoenix Karakas mum, Christine
