

Steel Yourself for Battle

The Ascot Park Hotel Southern Steel take on the NSW Swifts on Monday May 6th in our second Invercargill home game of the 2013 season. After last weekend's epic 15-goal win against the LG Northern Mystics, we're looking for a solid back-to-back win to strengthen our position as we head into the business end of the ANZ Championship season.

Our captain Jodi Brown hit the nail on the head when she referred to the Invercargill crowd support as being like having an extra Steel player on the court, so get your game face on and MAKE SOME NOISE !

Don't miss out - last minute tickets are still available from Stadium Southland in Invercargill, the Edgar Centre in Dunedin or online at www.ticketdirect.co.nz but they are selling fast, SO HURRY!

Defensive coach to join Steel

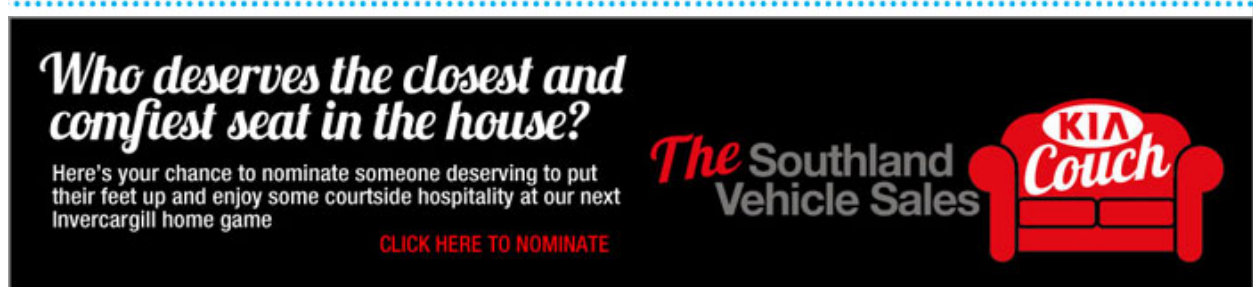

Southland NPC coach Reinga Te Huia will add valuable defensive nous to the Ascot Park Hotel Southern Steel this season.

Named as the team's defensive coach today, Te Huia, of Invercargill, said she was keen to embrace the opportunity to be involved with the Steel franchise and its ANZ Championship campaign.

"I'm looking at it as an opportunity to develop my coaching skills. I'm just going to be a sponge and soak up as much as I can," she said.

"This really is the next level up..."

Mum's the Word

Who better to tell us about 'Standing behind the Steel' than the players very own mothers!

Each week a player's mum will share their exclusive insight and memories of our favourite Steel netballers. (Should the players be worried?)

This week it's Wendy Frew's mum, Karen
