It's time to Stand Behind the Steel

Hailed as the toughest netball league on the planet, game time is looming in the 2012 ANZ Championship and this year it truly is the south verses everyone else.

For the Ascot Park Hotel Southern Steel, Monday night's opening clash against the star-studded Waikato/Bay of Plenty Magic in Invercargill marks the dawn of a dynamic new era.

In a sporting world where loyalty is often dictated by price, the Steel has opted for an ambitious new approach and there's a distinctly home-grown flavour to the 2012 edition as a result.
